

Where are You Going?
Joshua 3:14 – 4:7 (ESV)

Discussion Questions:

1. In your own words, describe what God was asking the people to do with the pile of stones.
2. What is the earliest sacred spot you can think of in your faith journey?
3. When was the last time you explained your faith journey or told that story?
4. There is a temptation to sometimes focus too much on the past, or too much on the future, both at the expense of the present moment. What is your biggest threat to being present in the moment?
5. Where do you feel God is taking you, when you look back on how your sacred spots align?
