

The Priorities of Christian Parenting
from Parenting Without Perfection
by David Seel

- I. Be an apprentice of Jesus.
- II. Live our life with integrity.
- III. Be a student of our teenager's world.
- IV. Become an advocate of our child's constructive interest.
- V. Establish limits based on the objective truth of reality.
- VI. Encourage passionate seeking of truth.
- VII. Focus on influence of beliefs and not behavior.
- VIII. Respect our child's self-determination.
- IX. Recognize influence of peers in neighborhood.
- X. Praying for our child is our first responsibility.
